Donald Groscost has maintained a studio in New York City for the past thirty-eight years. During this time he has taught as Instructor of Fine Arts and Art History at Caldwell College and Brookdale College and has been invited to teach and lecture as visiting artist at several universities, colleges, and museums throughout the United States and abroad. He has exhibited and been collected throughout the United States, South America, Asia, Indonesia, Australia, and Europe. Donald Groscost currently splits his time between Williamsburg, Brooklyn, and the Catskill mountains of New York. RIP Vader.